Marie was born in Seneca Falls, N.Y., on January 12, 1953, the daughter of the late James and Anna Thayer Moreland. She was a graduate of Mynderse Academy, Seneca Falls, and was a lifelong resident of Waterloo and Seneca Falls, where she was employed as an Order Entry Clerk by Gould's Pumps Water Systems, Seneca Falls, N.Y.

Marie loved to go shopping, especially her shopping on QVC. She loved her family, and enjoyed being with her nieces and nephews. She

Janet E. Fulkerson

SENECA FALLS — Janet E. Fulkerson, 96, of Leland Dr., Seneca Falls, N.Y., passed away peacefully on Friday (January 26, 2018) at Geneva General Hospital, Geneva N.Y.

Janet was born on January 11, 1922, in Brockport, N.Y., daughter of the late Frank and Josephine Wilson Jenkins. She was a lifetime resident of Seneca Falls. Janet was a graduate of Brockport State College, where she received her degree in education. She retired from the Seneca Falls School District, where she taught for many years, mostly at 5th grade. She was a member of the Delta Kamma Gamma sorority; Seneca County Retired Teachers Association; and a member of St. Patrick's Church in Seneca Falls, N.Y.

Janet enjoyed reading and crossword puzzles. She was a member of many bridge clubs, most importantly the "Holy Thursday" group of friends. For many years she wintered in Florida with her husband, Donald. She was a cancer survivor for over 50 years and made frequent pilgrimages to the Basilica of St. Anne de Beaupre in Quebec, Canada in thanksgiving and faith.

Seneca Meadows supports 3 programs

Seneca Meadows recently donated money to three area programs. It gave $3,000 to the Seneca Falls Development Corp.'s Kickstarter campaign for the Seneca Falls 2020 Centennial celebration of the passage of the 19th amendment.

It gave $2,000 — enough money to provide food for 10 children for one year — to the Seneca Falls Backpack Program.

And, it gave $2,003 —
