

Bill Ryan. Scratch division winners were Mike Lesch, Tim Mirabito, Jeff Catalano, Jason Brown; second place, Ted Lang, Fred Lang, Brian Passarello, Jack Weinerth; third place, C. J. Britt, Nels Johnson, Will Britt, Dennis Johnson.

The presenting sponsor was The Bonadio Group. Eagle sponsors were Finger Lakes Technologies Group, Gay & Son/Becker-McLean Insurance Companies, Relph Benefit Advisors, The Glenn Schwarting Family, IESI Seneca Meadows and Lyons National Bank.

Lodi FD plans tractor show

The Lodi Fire Department will host its annual Tractor Show Saturday (Aug. 15), 10 a.m.-4 p.m. at the fire company grounds.

education, development plan and site plan and related project documents for the Lago Resort and Casino project submitted to the town board by Lago Resort & Casino July 16 and any other matters properly before the town board.

A public hearing will be held by the Tyre Town Board at the Magee Volunteer Fire Department Building, Aug. 27 at 7:30 PM for the purpose of hearing public comments on the PUD District application and the proposed development plan for the proposed Lago Resort and Casino. The project involves the creation of a PUD District and a corresponding zoning map amendment for an approximately 84.95-acre parcel located in the area east of New York State Route 414 and north of the New York State Thruway (Tax Account No. 12.00-01-36) that would be rezoned from the existing zoning classification of agricultural. The proposed development on the

– Be Part of the 6 x 6 Frenzy

The Seneca County Arts Council (SCAC) will hold its 6 x 6 Frenzy fundraiser Aug. 28 at Art Works Gallery, Fall Street, downtown Seneca Falls, from 5:30-7 p.m.

What is a 6 x 6 Frenzy?

For a $20 donation, you are entitled to an original piece of unframed 6 x 6 art. There will be a reception with refreshments. There will be time for you to view the art and pick your favorite. Everyone will be ready to grab their chosen piece when a bell rings and the “frenzy” begins.

Sherry’s Bear and Frame Shop has donated several frames SCAC will sell for a minimal price. These small works of art make wonderful gifts and are a great addition to anyone’s home.

Bring home original art at a bargain while you enjoy a fun evening.

tour of the mobile pantry and met the volunteers helping out. Food for the mobile pantry is provided by Foodlink of Rochester.

Supporting the arts is an added incentive. Tickets are available at the door or can be pre-purchased at Art Works Gallery Monday-Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

For further information e-mail scac109@gmail.com or call Bev Lombardo, (315) 568-6137 or Abby Gazley at (315) 549-7030.

Race for Hunger benefits House of Concern

Seneca Meadows has announced its annual 5K Race for Hunger to benefit the House of Concern is scheduled for Aug. 29 at 9 a.m.. The unique flat terrain, trail race draws runners from across the state and around the country to the Seneca Meadows Wetlands Preserve’s USTAF certified course. Cash prizes are awarded to the overall male and female winners, and medals are presented to first, second and third place winners in all age categories.

Runners can register for the event on www.active.com at <http://www.active.com/seneca-falls-ny/running/distance-running-races/5k-race-for-hunger-2015?int=>.

“You meet the best people at this event,” said Marcy Neumire, manager of community relations for Seneca Meadows, sponsor of the event. “Our company is so fortunate to partner with the incredible volunteers and runners who give their time to make a difference in our community.”

This year’s volunteers include the Seneca Falls Volunteer Fire Department, Seneca County House of Concern, North Seneca Ambulance and many community members. The race coordinator is Jen Stanton.

Free, reduced eligibility guidelines released

A free and reduced price meal policy has been adopted in the county’s four school districts.

Free lunch, breakfast and milk is available with students with an annual income of $15,301 for a one person household. For each addition member in the family, the income increases by $5,408. Translated, that means a two-person household would have a $20,709 limit; three-person, $26,117; four-person, $31,525; five-person, $36,933, district for applications and/or questions.

SF outlines new school year

Mynderse Academy and Seneca Falls Middle School will commence the academic year Sept. 8.

New students in grades 6-12 must contact Diane Neal in the Guidance Office at (315) 568-5500, Ext. 2154, for an appointment from 8 a.m.-3 p.m. A new schedule will be issued for the first day of school. This must be done in person with Sheri Doell or Heather Pannucci and will not be done over the telephone. No changes will be made after Aug. 29.

High school freshmen and new students to the district will have orientation Sept. 3 from 1:30-2:30 p.m. and for parents Sept. 3 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. The purpose of the orientation is to review rules, regu-Lunch prices are grades 6-12, $2.35; breakfast/student, K-12: $1.70.

High school/middle school students are to report directly to first period. Students must refer to their schedule to find out what classroom they are in for first period

The first day of school is a full day. Students are to have notebooks and pens/pencils. Students may purchase supplies

Around the schools